Dr. Reynolds is one of the premier educators in the country. Since 2012 he has taught and served as Music Department Chair. In 2015, he launched the Jazz Studies program has led it to national prominence. Though SCPA attracts some of the most talented artists and musician in San Diego, over half of his students come from lower income families. As a result, Reynolds teaches many students in the midst of difficult, and in some cases, drastic living situations. "One of my students is effectively homeless right now," Reynolds said in a grave tone. "His dad is a drug addict and is having serious issues. So, those kinds of things are going on outside of a normal day of class."

May 22nd

Anna Danes
(Find Your Wings)
TED talk given at a TEDx Event but independently organized by a local community.

<https://www.tedx.com/tedx>

Find Your Wings has an encouraging message: By facing your fear in ANY challenge you can break out of your cage, find your wings, FLY and transform your life. Stepping outside of her gilded cage, a cage of self-doubt Anna Danes realized there is nothing better than a life lived with true purpose and passion, and being true to yourself. Anna's life is the stuff of the American Dream: born in Poland during communism, Anna and her parents escaped Poland in 1979 for a better life in Sweden. They later immigrated to Canada, where she became an attorney. She ultimately settled in sunny California upon getting married there. Anna has had to reinvent herself multiple times, changing homelands, learning new languages and cultures, changing careers, losing family and friends, enduring a painful divorce and facing cancer, twice now.
