Dear Friend of Wounded Warrior Battalion (West),

On behalf of the United States Marine Corps, I wish to thank you for this generous gift of Marine Corps birthday ball dresses for the spouses of our warriors. Your support for our brave Marines who have so courageously defended this great nation is truly appreciated.

One of my greatest privileges as a Marine is to lead the Wounded Warrior Battalion (West) [WWBn (West)] in its mission to help our wounded, ill and injured Marines to successfully return to duty or reintegrate into their communities. WWBn (West) provides wide-ranging services to our Marines from employment and financial counseling to recreational and athletic programs.

Your generosity helps WWBn (West) make a positive impact on the lives of our Marines. Whether wounded or suffering from illness, WWBn (West) Marines maintain the positive, can-do attitude that epitomizes everything that is great about our Marine Corps. Like many, I am at once amazed and inspired by their remarkable achievements. I am convinced that with support such as yours, no goal is unattainable for these resilient warriors.

Again, thank you for your generous support of the WWBn (West) mission. I encourage you to visit our website at www.woundedwarrior.marines.mil or follow the Regiment on Facebook.

Sincerely,

M. K. FLATLEY
Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Marine Corps
Wounded Warrior Battalion (West)
