Taking time to think about steps to increase your safety and the safety of your children is important, whether you have left, are considering leaving, or are currently in an abusive relationship. You may want to consider calling a domestic violence advocacy agency to assist you in safety planning. Call 888-DV-LINKS (888-385-4657) to speak with a confidential advocate or to be referred to an agency that specializes in domestic violence.

You may also view the National DV Hotline's website for safety planning ideas and steps for internet safety: <http://www.thehotline.org/get-help/safety-planning/>

JAIL NOTIFICATION

Inmates may be released at any time of the day. By calling to set up a "jail notification," you may receive a call (usually about one hour) ahead of when your partner is to be released. You can go online to make these arrangements at <http://www.sdsheriff.net/victims> or based on your area code you may call any one of the following: (619) 610-1647 (760) 936-0014 Two attempts will be made to contact you at the number you provide.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SHELTERS

There are shelters in San Diego County specifically geared to assisting domestic violence victims. In addition to housing and accommodations, most provide such services as advocacy, legal assistance, and counseling onsite. See the DV Services and Shelters section of the phone guide.

ORDERING POLICE REPORT(S)

Victims have a right to a free copy of their police report. Contact the responding law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction in which the incident occurred. Requests for reports can be made to most jurisdictions through the mail or in-person. The following information is necessary to identify the requested report: parties involved, date and location of occurrence, and the report number if available. Bring identification if you go in-person to pick up your report. The crime incident report is available no later than 48 business hours and the reports are available no later than 5 business days after they are taken.

SAFE AT HOME – CONFIDENTIAL MAILING ADDRESS

Program participants are provided a confidential mailing address, at no cost, so that they may use this instead of their home address. This mail forwarding program allows participants to safeguard their address when receiving first-class mail, opening a bank account, completing a confidential name change, filling out government documents, registering to vote, getting a driver's license, enrolling a child in school, and more. You may call toll-free at 1-877-322-5227 or visit <http://www.casafeathome.org> for a local enrolling agency.

RESTRAINING ORDERS

You can file at no cost for a restraining order, which may be granted by a judge to last up to 5 years.

There are no cost domestic violence clinics available to assist you in the application process.

For updated TRO Clinics and Family Law Facilitators locations and hours call 888-DV-LINKS or go to the following website: www.sdcourt.ca.gov. Select the "Family" tab and select "Domestic Violence."

Arrive at a minimum of 2 hours before the clinic closes. Be prepared to spend a minimum of one-half of a day to a full day at the court to obtain your restraining order. Space is limited at child care facilities at each court house. You are encouraged to make other child care arrangements.

Things to bring with you when you complete your paperwork, if available: The address for the person you would like restrained; Date of birth for the person you would like restrained; Physical description of the person you would like restrained; Photographs of any injuries; Copy of the police report(s).
