Water for South Sudan (WFSS) Morgan Run (Oct. 10th)

We were fortunate to have Salva Dut (Founder of WFSS) one of the original LOST BOYS of Sudan and Lynn Malooly (Executive Director) of Water for South Sudan come and speak to us and have Salva talk to about his 1,100 mile walk through Sudan, Ethiopia and finally to a refugee camp in Kenya.

This compelling story is about a program that started with drilling one bore hole for Salva's father that eventually developed into over 400 such wells serving South Sudan and saving thousands of lives! Thank you Ole Prahm for organizing this event!

eBay Wednesdays

The 3rd Wednesday of every month, members can empty their closets and garages of treasures they would like to donate. Rotary will collect and see them on eBay and the proceeds will go to Future Legends.

Rotarians Fighting Human Trafficking

San Diego County and its Rotary Clubs are in the process of educating and spreading awareness about the prevention of human trafficking. The San Diego Downtown Breakfast Club (Tom Fitch) and the La Mesa Rotary Club #33 already have a collaboration with Anti Human Trafficking (AHT), sharing many updates/events as they go. Dani Womack the Past President of the La Mesa Rotary, is the Executive Director of City Hope <https://cityhopenow.org>, and is a passionate advocate. The Rancho Santa Fe Rotary Club has now joined this effort that includes the already established District 5280 cause with Past President Cozette Vergari that will now include resources and contacts in SD County. <https://rotariansfightinghumantrafficking.org>

The San Diego County Office of Education (SDCOE) <https://www.sdcoe.net/news/Pages/SDCOE-partners-on-New-Human-Trafficking-Prevention-Programs.aspx> and County District Attorney Summer Stephan have a coordinated trio of programs that aims to bring human trafficking education, prevention, and awareness training into every public school in San Diego County under the umbrella of the San Diego Trafficking Prevention Collective (SDTPC). <https://www.sandiegotpc.org/trafficking>

The First-of-its-kind public-private partnership will bring unique programs to schools under the Collective's umbrella: PROTECT, Project ROOTS and KNOW MORE.

The next teacher's academy is set for November 5th at the County Office of Education from 3:00pm - 6:00pm
